

2010 Week 1 is finished!

We are excited to inform that the first week of the 2010 evangelistic efforts on in the Kuna Yala has been completed. The teams have all left for their homes and the new teams have replaced them and are ready to leave tomorrow for the second week. We are praising God for once again blessing this endeavor with many new decisions for Christ and lives that have been changed over the course of the last year. Below is the information pertaining to each of the communities we were in during this last week.
